Deca at Camperdown

Deca at Camperdown is a mid-rise multifamily development built on the previous site of the Greenville News complex and overlooking Reedy River Falls. Inspired by nature and newspapers, the large art installation in the lobby, handcrafted with books, pays homage to Camperdown's print legacy, while the property's penthouses boast views of the waterfalls in the park below. Large, open industrial spaces throughout Camperdown are complimented with softness in upholstery and textiles, bringing pops of warmth and color to the design.

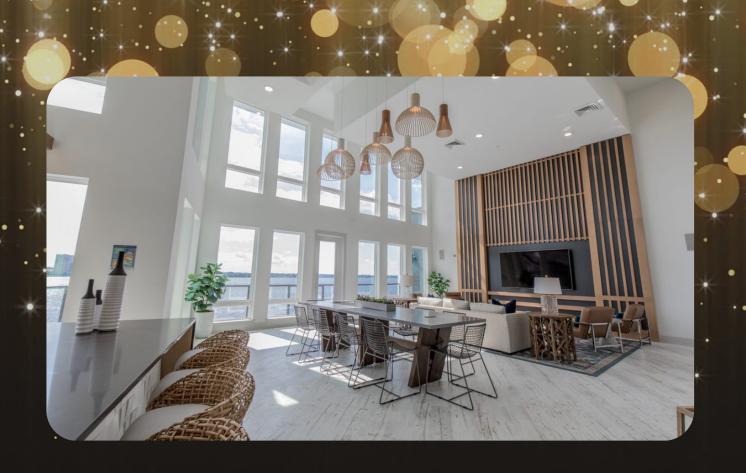

Textural and industrial finishes highlight the building's architectural details. Emerald green tile in the amenity spaces is juxtaposed with wood beam ceilings and mixed metal lighting to create a sophisticated and inviting lounge for residents. Local photography graces the walls of the corridors leading to unique amenities including bicycle storage and fix-it room, a dog spa, co-working space, and private conference rooms.

Riverside St. John

The design of Riverside St. Johns, a multifamily development situated on the banks of the St. Johns River in Jacksonville, FL, is influenced by its coastal setting and an elevated industrial modern aesthetic. The interiors throughout the community feature dark and light wood tones that intertwine with natural material textures to create a welcoming haven for residents. The wood trim detailing in the leasing office runs from the walls onto the ceiling, creating a stunning feature that is accented with origami-inspired lighting.

The warm but modern aesthetic of the Sky Lounge, with panoramic views of downtown Jacksonville and the river, is accentuated with white tones on thewalls and flooring, rich natural materials and moments of color in the textiles. A wood-slatted feature wall serves as a grand statement at one end of the room, while an abstract blue wallcovering mirrors the waves rolling just outside the double height windows.

Embassy Suites

Downtown Knoxville, Tennessee

Fusion A.I. Design provided custom interior design for all amenity features of an adaptive re-use development in the heart of downtown Knoxville within walking distance of the historic Tennessee Theatre, the University of TN and Market Square. Transforming a 70's era office building into a mixed use project which supports a 166 room upscale hotel, a rooftop bar with outdoor lounge and pool, a local fine dining restaurant, an independent coffee shop, spa, Top Golf Swing Suite and finallytwo private condos, it has already become a Knoxville destination since opening in October 2019.

The classic yet playful aesthetic seamlessly weaves the hotel's design into the fabric of the city. Strong textures are placed on a neutral-range backdrop with indigo blue accents and a sparing use of the regionally significant Volunteer Orange, provides just the right amount of warm, vibrant contrast to the timeless sophisticated palette.

Embassy Suites Downtown Knoxville, Tennessee

Hampton Inn, Oakland Downtown California

Hampton Inn Oakland CA opened in July, 2019 as downtown's first new hotel in 18 years! Located jus a short walk from the business district and the Oakland Convention Center, the 6-story hotel contributes 121 new rooms to the city's tourism boom. The public area design is completely custom, while still respecting all Brand requirements. It provides a chic, casual-hip vibe befitting its location by incorporating bold color accents with clean, modern style furnishings.

Original, curated art supports the very active local arts community, while also introducing visitors to the city's history and culture. Architecturally, spaces are defined utilizing accent wood ceilings, walls and millwork with a deliberately natural, light wood tone to further support the modern aesthetic. In the guestrooms, select custom details such as headboard graphics inspired by the city's street map and accent seating in pops of orange and fuschia colors further support the overall design.
