

NEWH/Washington DC Metro – Members Only Golf Clinic

Golf Pro – Don Frost

Biography:

Born in Frederick, Md.

Attended the University of North Carolina on a golf scholarship.

Sponsored to play professional golf for 3 years.

Worked as a club golf professional at Country Club of Florida & Blowing Rock Country Club, became youngest PGA Director of Golf in Maryland at Clustered Spires Golf Club.

Taught 3 years on the PGA Tour, instructing Multiple male and female champions.

Has given over 40,000 professional lessons, and 19 of his students became golf professionals.

Don has been selected as the Mid Atlantic PGA Teacher of the Year – Mid Atlantic PGA Development & Education Professional of the Year – has been selected as Grow the Game of Golf leader numerous times – Top 100 Professional Club Fitter – and selected to the Frederick County Sports Hall of Fame.

Don was hired to teach golf for The Golf Digest Golf Schools where Don mentored under World Hall of Fame Golf Instructor, Bob Toski. Don was also hired to manage the merchandise pro shop at Augusta National during the Masters.

Today, Don has become a recognized coach to PGA instructors, hosting many seminars for golf teaching professionals on how to become better instructors. He also leads Montgomery County's golf instructional program.

Don's passion is golf and helping others to better enjoy the great game of golf!