

La'Tasha Price

Junior Interior
Designer

A motivated student designer, seeking a position that allows me to demonstrate my creativity and unique design skills when managing projects.

- ◆ Innovative ◆ Adaptable ◆ Passionate ◆ Creative
- ◆ Detail Orientated ◆ Fast Learner ◆ Problem Solver ◆ Team Player
- ◆ Organized ◆ Practical ◆ Leader ◆ Risk-taker

EXPERIENCE

Starbucks Barista, Harris Teeter

Prioritized customer needs, delivered high-quality products, and adhere to safety guidelines. Recognize accomplishments and process transactions accurately.

- Food Safety certification

Bookseller, Barnes & Noble Education

Provided top-notch customer service by engaging with customers, suggesting products, and keeping the store tidy. I also helped new employees get acclimated, resulting in happy customers and increased sales.

Solutions Specialist, Verizon Wireless

Actively listen to customers, give tailored solutions, share new products, and build trust-based relationships. Passionate about tech and resourceful in driving sales.

Team Member, The Simple Greek

Took ownership of each guest's experience and feel empowered to take the initiative that will improve restaurant operations and atmosphere. Patiently and respectfully resolve any issues with guests; was proactive to avoid conflicts, and reactive to ensure dissatisfied guests returned to the restaurant.

EDUCATION

Associates in Interior Design (Expected Graduation: May 2024)

Tidewater Community College,
Chesapeake, VA,
Deans List, Student Government
Association Senator, Community
Manager of D&D Club, Member of Gear Up to Lead: Leadership Program

SKILLS

Adobe Photoshop, AutoCAD,
Drafting, Microsoft Office, Canva

CERTIFICATIONS

Associate Designer,
Kitchen and Bath Design,
Green Design

LANGUAGES

Native: English
Scholastic: American Sign Language

REFERENCES

Sara Hair: Coordinator of Leadership & Development
(757) 822-5123, shair@tcc.edu

Lana Sapozhnikov: Interior Designer, Home Stager, Professor at Tidewater Community College (804)-402-5262, lsapozhnikov@tcc.edu